

There no hard evidence that cell phones do not interfere with navigational equipment. This proposal would enable terrorists to coordinate a plan action. Use of cell phones would tend to contribute to an already tense environment making it even more tense and stressful for passsengers and crew. Please do not implement this proposal for our safety.